DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1, 3-7, 10-13, 20, 24, 25, 27, 31 and 32 are under consideration in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1, 5, 6, 10, 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Applicants fail to argue this rejection or amend the claims to put the application in condition for allowance.

Again, the expressions a "lower alkyl group... hetero atom in the ring", "R<sup>6</sup> and R<sup>7</sup> may together form a ring....may have a substituent" and "substituted" are employed with considerable abandon throughout claims 1, 5, 6, 10, 12 and 14 with no indication given as to what the rings and substituents really are. One, one reading the indication of heterocyclic ring applied by applicants in R<sup>6</sup> and R<sup>7</sup>, has no idea what size ring is being claimed, or where the hetero atoms are in this unknown ring or what the substituents may be. Moreover, the term substituted is employed in claims 1, 5, 6, 10, 12 and 14 with no indication of the variables. The term contains is open-ended. What are the substituents on the pyridine and furyl rings? What is meant by the expression cyclic alkyl....which may contain a hetero ring in claim 10?

Art Unit: 1625

One cannot tell from a simple reading of the claim what is being claimed. Also, one must figure which compound treats which disease. One must first conceive of the hetero ring. Further, applicants are claiming that the instant compounds can treat a staggering list of any and all diseases. Then one must, by preparing the compound himself, determine if the hetero ring or substituents works or not. Where is the specific claiming and distinctly pointing out? How can applicants regard as their invention inexact concepts? The breadth of which they could not have possibly checked out with representative exemplification. The terms are not finite.

Applicants are claiming a compound of the formula. Pure chemistry, a compound. Not a resin of general property ranges, but a pure compound. That compound used for any purpose is taken from the public in a 20-year monopoly to applicants. Then, the public is entitled to know what compound they cannot use. Yet, the claim is not specific to that compound. The public cannot tell what they may not use. How is a claim of the instant breadth defensible in an infringement action?

As applied to pure compounds, In re Cavallito and Gray, 134 USPQ 370, and In re Sus and Schaefer, 134 USPQ 301, are considered to set the proper applicable standard of required definiteness and support.

The written description is considered inadequate here in the specification. Conception of the intended rings and substituents should not be the role of the reader. Applicants should, in return for a 20 year monopoly, be disclosing to the public that which they know as an actual demonstrated fact. The disclosure should not be merely an invitation to experiment. This is a 35 USC 112, first paragraph. If you (the public) find that it works, I claim it, is not a proper basis of patentability. In re Kirk, 153 USPQ 48, at page 53.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3, 4, 7, 11, 13, 20, 24, 25, 27, 31 and 32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Claims 1, 5, 6, 10, 12 and 14 are not allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
